THE FORTY-SEVENTH REPORT
OF THE
DEPUTY KEEPER OF THE PUBLIC RECORDS
AND KEEPER OF THE STATE PAPERS
IN IRELAND.

TO THE RIGHT HONOURABLE BARON WIMBORNE,
LORD LIEUTENANT-GENERAL AND GENERAL GOVERNOR OF IRELAND.
MAY IT PLEASE YOUR EXCELLENCY,

I respectfully beg to submit my Report, under the direction of the Right Honourable the Master of the Rolls, and pursuant to the 24th section of the Public Records (Ireland) Act, 1867, on the proceedings had during the year 1914 in connection with the Public Records of Ireland.

1. Mr. James Mills, I.S.O., resigned his post of Deputy Keeper of the Records and Keeper of the State Papers in this office, from 31st May, 1914.

He had suffered from serious illness for some time, and he died on the 5th September, 1914, very much regretted.

At the competitive examination for Junior Clerkships in 1868 he obtained first place, and after various promotions he was appointed to be Deputy Keeper in succession to Dr. John J. Digges La Touche in 1899. He was associated with the office from its establishment in 1867-8, and for a few years before his retirement was the last member of the original staff.

Endowed with great ability and industry, and specially devoted to Record work and research, he soon became thoroughly familiar with the routine work of the various departmental branches of the Public Record Office and State Paper Office; he learned to read and translate the Latin and French records with facility and accuracy, and his knowledge of legal terminology and phraseology was singularly complete.

As Deputy Keeper since 1899 he administered the ordinary work of the office and planned and directed its Record publications.

A vast amount of new work was thrown on the office since 1908 by the operation of the Old Age Pensions Act. In the great majority of cases claimants could obtain no documentary evidence of age except in the Returns of the Census taken in the years 1821, 1841, and 1851. These Returns contain the entries of the ages of children who are the pensioners or claimants of the present day, and as they were very largely availed of for proof of age it became necessary to organize a special department to deal with Old Age Pensions' work, and under the direction and personal supervision of Mr. Mills, it proved most efficient in discharging very onerous and urgent work.

During the intervals of routine work he compiled Calendars of the Piaints from Henry VIII. to Elizabeth, inclusive; and of the Justiciary Rolls in the reign of Edward I. for the years 1295-1307.

The Early Statutes of Ireland 1204-1472, Catalogues of the Accounts of the Pipe Rolls in the Exchequer 1237-1340, and various Reports of great value were published under his direction and accurate editorship.

Besides his archival work in the Office he edited the "Account Roll of the Priory of the Holy Trinity, Dublin, 1337-1346, with the Middle English Moral Play, the Pride of Life," for the Royal Society of Antiquaries of Ireland; he was joint editor of the "Calendar of the Gormanston Register" for the same Society; and he contributed several valuable papers to various learned societies.

He was always kind and courteous to his staff and appeared to regard it rather as a pleasure than a task to assist them over difficulties which his intimate knowledge of the Records rendered easy of solution to him.

2. His Excellency the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, on the recommendation of the Master of the Rolls, was pleased to appoint me, previously the Assistant Deputy Keeper in the Office, to be Deputy Keeper of the Public Records and Keeper of the State Papers in succession to Mr. Mills; Mr. Herbert Wood, B.A., previously the Assistant Keeper, to be Assistant Deputy Keeper; and Mr. James F. Morrissey, B.A., previously the Senior Clerk, to be Assistant Keeper.

3. Mr. G. S. Robertson was assigned by the Civil Service Commissioners to fill the vacancy caused by the promotion of Mr. Morrissey. Before his appointment was completed he received a temporary commission in the Army to last until the end of the present war.

Mr. James O. Nicolson, Workman Searcher in this Office, a private in the Reserve of the Irish Guards, was called up for active service, and has been promoted to the rank of Acting-Sergeant.

5. Other members of the staff, with the consent of the Master of the Rolls, joined His Majesty's Forces for the period of the War; viz., Mr. Harold Thorp, a Class I. clerk, enlisted in the Royal Army Medical Corps; and Mr. James L. J. Hughes, a Supplementary clerk, enlisted in the South Irish Horse, and subsequently obtained a temporary commission.

6. The places of these absent members will be kept open for them until the termination of their military service. The absence of four members of the staff seriously cripples the working of the office.

7. The Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury during the year 1914 sanctioned the issue as a Stationery Office publication of a "Guide to the Records in the Public Record Office of Ireland."

They also sanctioned the reprinting of the "Calendars of Plants of the reigns of Henry VIII., Edward VI., Philip and Mary, and Elizabeth," as detailed in the Forty-sixth Report of the Deputy Keeper, paragraphs 4 and 5, where the present Report is anticipated.

8. Births were not registered in Ireland until the year 1864; while the series of Baptismal Registers in this Department is very defective, and only contains entries of the baptisms of members of the late established Protestant Church of Ireland. For these reasons the Census Returns of 1851 have been useful in the extreme in furnishing proof of age.

Much trouble has been caused in making numerous searches for applicants for Old Age Pensions who asserted that their parents resided in Dublin on the night this Census was taken, but whose statements in this respect turned out to be incorrect. It was not possible before commencing the searches to check these statements by the Dublin Directory for 1851 for the following reasons:—

(a) Names of Heads of Families in very many instances are not given in this Directory in cases of tenement houses, cottages, courts, etc.

(b) Many families changed address between December, 1850, when the particulars were furnished for the Directory, and 30th March, 1851, when the Census was taken, and

(c) There are mistakes in the names of Heads of Families in the Directory.

A Catalogue of Families residing in Dublin on the night the Census was taken has now been compiled from the Census Records. It runs in the same form as the Directory; and it will be used henceforth to check the statements of applicants and to locate families then living in Dublin, of whose address there is no certain knowledge.

This catalogue has been prepared by Mr. D. A. Chart; it will save the Dublin Census Returns from much unnecessary wear, and will be extremely useful to genealogists, claimants for Old Age Pensions, etc.

9. The facilities offered to the Historical Manuscripts Commission have been availed of by them. A large collection of original Deeds belonging to the Marquis of Ormonde was deposited here for the purpose of being calendared by Dr. H. F. Berry. They commence with the Anglo-Norman Conquest, and are of great historical value to students of Irish topography and family history.

10. It is again necessary to call attention to the urgent necessity of providing additional storage space for the incoming Records, either by the extension of the Record Treasury or by securing another building in the immediate neighbourhood of the Office. All the available space will become exhausted in a very few years, and then it will not be possible to receive any further Records until additional space shall be provided. (See Forty-Fourth Report, paragraph 7.)
